Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that Mr Y Ramadasalu, Librarian to this College, has been so many times absent since the beginning of the present year that it has been a very great inconvenience to the College and source of much additional trouble to myself

He has been absent for 5 days on Casual Leave (Jan 30 and 31, Feb 4 & 5, Sept 21), 18 days, leave on substitute (7th to 24th Feb), 1 month and 16days, Privilege Leave on half pay (25th Feb to 9th Apr), 18 days, Sick Leave (18th Sept to 6th Oct), and he has after only a few days service, 7th Oct to 11th Oct, again had to take leave and send in request for at least one month 's Sick Leave The illness from which he suffers appears to be Rheumatism, which is probably the cause of his handwriting being so very bad for years past as to be almost illegible

I directed him to appear, with this office docket No 156 dated 26th Sept 1901, before the Offg Senior Surgeon for examination and report as to his fitness for continuance in the permanent service, but the Offg Senior Surgeon in his No 2121 reports that he is on examination found to be physically fit for continuance in the service

He has been in the service since 15th March 1877, when he was employed as Pupil Teacher on Rs12/- and thus he has completed 24 years and 7 months service When I came to the Central College in 1882 he was in charge of one of the lowest classes, and after the abolition of these primary classes he was kept on as Clerk to the Principal from 12th August 1883 on Rs20/- He continued as Clerk for 8 years, and was made Librarian of the College on 1st Sept 1891; but his writing which was always very poor has been of late years deteriorating so much that he is almost useless for the clerical work re-
